

An educational program for you & your 16 to 26 month-old.

Creative Explorations is Paddington Station’s alternative to the traditional Mom/Tot program. Tots can be accompanied by any one of a number of people—Moms, Dads, Aunts, Uncles, Nannies or friends. This is an educationally based interactive program for children 16 to 26 months. Adults will teach alongside a Paddington Station teacher who will facilitate the learning process. This program will meet once a week for 1½ hours and will be a resource for children and adults.

Children will explore art, music and sensory activities. Their social, emotional, cognitive, physical and creative development will be enriched.

Adults will be provided with a supportive, nurturing, educational environment. You will be given an opportunity to discuss your child’s growth and development, as well as to share the joys and hurdles of raising a toddler. You will create your own Education Notebook filled with educational articles and ideas for crafts and activities to do in your own home.
